

Advancement- The process of offering opportunities/career ladders for current staff to advance to more desirable positions.

Compensation- The rate of pay for the job done.

Deployment- A deployment is the move of an employee from one position to another within the same occupational group, or the initial placement into the role assigned.

Recruitment- The processes in place to locate/find potential employees.

Retention- The ability of an agency/organization to retain or keep employees for longer periods of time.

Selection- Once the interviewing process is complete the way in which candidates are chosen for the position.

Training- Educational process to ensure proper and appropriate knowledge, skills and abilities for a given job role.